Harrie Samaras Attended the ABA Mid-Year Meeting and Leadership Activities

West Chester, Pa. – Harrie Samaras attended the Mid-Year meeting of the American Bar Association in Orlando, Florida beginning on February 5, 2010 to participate in leadership meetings, including the Dispute Resolution Section’s Council meeting and the Intellectual Property Law Section’s leadership program.

Harrie is the liaison from the IPL Section to the Dispute Resolution Section’s Advisory Committee, which is composed of liaisons from the ADR Committees of the various practice law Sections of the ABA. As a member of the Advisory Committee, Harrie became one of two liaisons to the Dispute Resolution Section’s Council which functions as a Board for the Dispute Resolution Section. The Section seeks to maintain the ABA's national leadership role in the dispute resolution field thus the business of the council includes a broad array of issues relating to education, legislation, studies, and policy in the ADR field.

Harrie is also the Vice Chair of the IPL Section’s Division VI - Litigation, Alternative Dispute Resolution and Related Issues. The leadership program provided Harrie and other Division Chairs and Vice Chairs the opportunity to discuss with their Committee Chairs the progress of Committee activities for the current year and plans for the balance of the year including inventive and cost-effective ways to achieve objectives. The program also provided the Section leadership (eight Divisions) an opportunity to evaluate collectively its progress for the year, share upcoming plans, and discuss areas of improvement.
