Harrie Samaras Launches Advanced Business Law Resources

West Chester, Pa. – Harrie Samaras along with her colleague Judy Weintraub recently launched a new venture called Advanced Business Law Resources offering training and consulting services to assist businesses with preventing, managing and resolving disputes.

Advanced Business Law Resources (“ABLR”) specializes in providing training, courses and consulting services to lawyers as well as business managers and executives. The services are aimed at developing and improving skills for preventing, reducing and resolving conflicts. Training and courses can be tailored for individual or group instruction. Details about ABLR’s varied services are provided at www.ablr.biz.

Harrie and Judy are uniquely suited to provide the services offered by ABLR. They have been practicing attorneys for over 25 years and each has extensive experience as a mediator and arbitrator. Both have also worked in private practice and as in-house counsel where they have represented clients in resolving disputes (e.g., negotiation, mediation, arbitration) and negotiated scores of agreements, including settlement agreements. Harrie and Judy combine their substantial ADR, legal and teaching experience to each of the training, teaching and consulting services offered by Advanced Business Law Resources.
