Harrie Samaras Assumes Leadership Roles In Two Sections of the American Bar Association

West Chester, Pa. – At the American Bar Association’s Annual Meeting in San Francisco held August 5 through 10, 2010, Harrie Samaras became the Chair of Division VI (Litigation, Alternative Dispute Resolution & Related Issues) of the ABA’s Section of Intellectual Property Law and was confirmed as a member of the ABA’s Section of Dispute Resolution’s Council.

Before becoming Chair of Division VI (IPL Section), Harrie served for a year as the Division’s Vice-Chair and for two previous years as a committee leader - Co-Chair and Chair of Division VI’s ADR Committee.

Last year Harrie was appointed as Liaison from the IPL Section to the Dispute Resolution Section’s Advisory Committee. The Advisory Committee is formed of liaisons from 18 other ABA sections having ADR committees. As a member of the Advisory Committee, Harrie was eligible to serve as one of two representatives (from the Committee) on the Dispute Resolution Council. This year, she was reappointed as both Liaison and Council member.

Serving in leadership roles for both ABA Sections permits Harrie to contribute her knowledge and experience to both Sections and to keep current with cutting-edge developments in both areas of the law.
