Harrie Samaras Participates in Local Mediation Program

West Chester, Pa. – On April 26, 2011, Harrie Samaras participated in a one-hour program sponsored by the Women in the Profession Committee of the Philadelphia Bar Association entitled Mediation from the Mediator's Perspective.

Harrie joined on the panel two other full-time mediators: the Honorable Jane Cutler Greenspan (Ret.) and Judith P. Meyer. The presenters discussed how they became mediators as well as practical tips for representing clients in mediation including: preparing for mediation, choosing a mediator, tailoring the mediation process, and working with your mediator. The panel also fielded questions from an enthusiastic audience.

Harrie is certified by the International Mediation Institute. Her mediation practice focuses on the mediation of domestic and international disputes involving intellectual property and business and technology issues. She serves as a mediator on an ad hoc basis and for such well-known institutions as the American Arbitration Association, CPR International Institute for Conflict Prevention and Resolution (CPR), the U.S. District Court for the E.D. of Pennsylvania and the U.S. International Trade Commission (ITC)
