Harrie Samaras Becomes a Fellow of the College of Commercial Arbitrators

West Chester, Pa. – Harrie Samaras was recently welcomed as a Fellow into the College of Commercial Arbitrators (CCA).

The College of Commercial Arbitrators is a national organization of commercial arbitrators providing a meaningful contribution to the profession, the public and to the businesses and lawyers who depend on commercial arbitration as a primary means of dispute resolution. CCA promotes the highest standards of conduct, professionalism and ethical practice, develops “best practices,” and provides peer training and professional development.

Candidates for CCA membership must be nominated by a current Fellow and seconded by at least two other Fellows. Nominees must demonstrate: a minimum of ten years experience in the field of dispute resolution including substantial experience as a commercial arbitrator; high standards of integrity, professionalism and competence as a commercial arbitrator; and respect in the relevant community of advocates, other arbitrators, and users of commercial arbitration.

Harrie is pleased with the distinction of becoming a Fellow of the College of Commercial Arbitrators and looks forward to actively participating in the CCA’s worthwhile endeavors.
