Harrie Samaras Assumes New Leadership Roles in ABA

West Chester, Pa. – Harrie Samaras assumes 3 leadership roles in the American Bar Association’s Dispute Resolution (DR) and Intellectual Property Law (IPL) Sections as of August 2013.

Two of those roles are reappointments: Co-Chair of the IP Committee in the Dispute Resolution Section and, for a fifth year, Liaison from the ABA’s IPL Section to the ABA’s Dispute Resolution Section’s Advisory Committee. As Co-Chair of the IP Committee, Harrie will work on continuing legal education programs, a newsletter, and teleconferences relating to ADR issues in intellectual property disputes. As Liaison, Harrie hopes to continue the synergies between the Sections she has fostered over the years whether in CLE programming or voting on resolutions relating to intellectual property and/or dispute resolution issues.

Harrie was also appointed to serve on the Dispute Resolution Section’s Council. In that role she will work on matters involving: policy on cutting-edge dispute resolution issues, continuing legal education programs, training programs, resources and publications, and other initiatives involving the use of all forms of alternative dispute resolution in various fields and venues.
